Governor Explains Action by Saying
That The Responsibility Was All
His Anyway

IN BANKRUPTCY HEARING

Also Admits That When He Became
Governor, State Deposits at Kent-
land Were Increased

BROWN LOANED $155,000

Governor Declares That He Gave
$87,746 Notes as Collateral—
Brown Denies This

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16—Admission that he had signed the names of farm managers to notes and later obtained the approval of the managers to the action, was made by Governor McCray in today's hearing on a petition to have him declared bankrupt.

McCray said he had signed the names of Frank Henderson, manager of the Hickory Island Stock farm, and that of a man named Pickett, whose first name he could not remember, to the paper.

He explained this action by saying that the responsibility was his anyway and the banks never asked about the second name on the note but bought the paper on his endorsement.

McCray also admitted that when he became governor the amount of state funds on deposit in the Discount and Deposit State bank at Kentland, of which the governor was president, was increased from $49,000 to about $145,000.

When McCray was questioned regarding the $155,000 of the funds of the state board of agriculture which passed through his hands, he testified that I. Newt Brown, secretary-treasurer of the board, loaned him the money and that he gave Brown $87,746 in notes as collateral.

Brown declared the money was intended for deposit in McCray's bank at Kentland, Ind.

The hearing before Harry C. Sheridan, master in charge was slow in starting today.

McCray took the stand and was questioned by W. J. Vesey, one of the attorneys for the three Fort Wayne banks, which instituted the bankruptcy proceedings against the governor.

Vesey asked McCray about certain notes which were reported to have been endorsed with the names of his farm managers without their knowledge.

McCray said he had signed the names of Frank Henderson and a man named Pickett, farm managers, to notes. He said he had verbal authority from Henderson to sign his name, but did not remember whether Pickett had given him the same privilege.

"What was your purpose in signing their names?" Vesey asked.

"The responsibility was the same whether I signed as endorser or maker," McCray replied. "The banks required a two name paper. They were buying paper on my endorsement."

"How do you know?"

"Because they did not ask about the makers."

McCray said he wanted to resign as president of the Kentland bank when he was elected governor in 1920 but that the directors objected.

"After you became governor, you were about to obtain considerable state funds for deposit in your bank were you not?" Vesey asked.

"Yes," McCray replied. "But it had state deposits before I was governor."

"What did they amount to?"

"$10,000 I believe."

"You increased that amount largely, did you not?"

"Yes."

"Until that it got as high as $150,000?"

"Yes."

Vesey took up the board of agriculture loan of $155,000 to McCray.

"You say the board of agriculture loaned you $155,000," Vesey said.

"What security did the board of agriculture have?"

"I turned over to the board notes

TRUE BILLS AGAINST EDWARDSPOY YEGGS

Grand Jury Returns Indictments
Charging Armstrong And Jones
With Murder

HELD IN TERRE HAUTE JAIL

(By United Press)

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 16—True bills charging Theodore Armstrong and William Jones, Bicknell coal miners, with first degree murder for the shooting of Charles Wright, Edwardsport bank cashier, were returned by the Knox county grand jury today.

The two men under indictment are held in the jail at Terre Haute for safe keeping because of threatened mob violence against them.

Wright was killed when two unmasked bandits attempted to hold up the bank a week ago. Five hours after the shooting Armstrong and Jones were arrested and put through an all-night grilling.

Armstrong, according to Knox county authorities, confessed to the shooting and implicated Jones. The latter maintained his innocence throughout.

The Knox county grand jury was called into special session and its finding was made after about 100 witnesses from Bicknell and Edwardsport had been examined.

THE KEY TO THE WHOLE SITUATION

PROGRAM FOR WEEK IS READY

Meetings Arranged For in Fifteen
Communities in Rush County to
Stress Education

MINISTERS WILL CO-OPERATE

Members of Rushville Kiwanis And
Rotary Clubs to Carry Message
Throughout County

American Education Week will be observed in Rush county next week with public meetings in every community in which there is a school house. Birney D. Farthing, county school superintendent, having arranged for fifteen of them, beginning Monday and continuing until Saturday night.

Members of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs of Rushville have volunteered their services to carry the message of Education Week throughout the county.

Many Rush county ministers will deliver sermons on the subject in their churches Sunday, showing the importance of education in the life of every American citizen.

Benjamin J. Barris, state superintendent of public instruction, has promised his co-operation and will speak at the opening meeting at Manilla Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to be held in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Barris' address will feature the program which is being planned by the school, as Mr. Barris is an authority on Indiana school problems, many residents of Rush and Shelby counties will be interested in attending this function. This is the second community meeting to be held at the Manilla school and from all indications a large audience will greet Mr. Barris on this occasion.

Monday being set aside as Constitution Day, Lew Lewis, former trustee of Walker township, will distribute one hundred copies of the constitution of the United States and of Indiana.

The High School Chorus and the Girl's Glee Club will provide the musical numbers on the program. Other features will be added so that the different phases of American Education Week will be properly observed and emphasized.

The Kiwanis and Rotary clubs are arranging special Education Week programs for their regular meetings next week.

The program for American Education Week will be properly observed and emphasized.

EDUCATION WEEK PROCLAMATION

Through all the past ages it has been an acknowledged fact that the man of knowledge gained by his most energetic tireless efforts, is more able to render to his community the service required to solve the vital problems that come to us. There is an obligation each will have to perform. Then it behooves us to prepare and construct for the future posterity an educational program that is of equal access to all. I would suggest a law being passed whereby school attendance be raised from sixteen to eighteen. I therefore proclaim as mayor of the city of Rushville that American Education Week be observed from the 18th to the 24th of November.

WALTER THOMAS,
Mayor of Rushville.

COUNTY PRINCIPALS GOING TO BLOOMINGTON

No Meeting Held Today On Account
of Plan To Attend State Conference Next Week

ALL BUT THREE TO ATTEND

The Rush County Principals association, which was to have held their regular monthly session today in the office of County Superintendent B. D. Farthing, was not held. The members of the association will leave next Friday for Bloomington to attend the State High School Principals' Conference.

The meeting at Bloomington will occupy two days, closing Saturday afternoon with the annual home coming day at Indiana University and the football game between Indiana and Purdue.

All of the principals in this county will attend, excepting three, Lyle Power of Milroy, whose school is handicapped for lost time on account of the heating plant, L. A. Lockwood of Carthage, whose assistant is ill, and J. M. Koch of Manilla.

E. B. Butler of the Rushville city schools will accompany the Rush county members. A two days program has been arranged, and it is pointed out that much benefit will be derived from the meeting.

The meeting next week will take the place of the one scheduled for today.

WALTON SEES A CONSPIRACY

Suspended Governor of Oklahoma
Asserts Opposition To Ku Klux
Klan is Responsible

BACKBONE OF HIS DEFENSE

Says In Ended Impeachment Was
Started When He Called Troops
To Protect Citizens

(By United Press)

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 16.—A concerted conspiracy by Oklahoma house and senate members to drive from office Governor J. C. Walton because of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan was charged today by the suspended executive.

"This intended impeachment was started when I suspended the right of habeas corpus and summoned troops to protect the rights of citizens from the Klan," was the governor's version co-incident with summons served on commercial telegraph companies to present telegrams exchanged between legislators since September 10.

In support of his charge which is to be the backbone of the defense, Walton hopes to present:

1—Records and membership rolls of the Ku Klux Klan which N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the realm of Oklahoma, has been summoned to bring to the senate.

2—Telegrams exchanged by legislators, particularly a "show" sent to the capital by Klansmen arguing that the "goods" be delivered.

3—Testimony of some 150 or 200 Oklahomans to outrages attributed to the Klan.

Meanwhile, the senate court resumed its exhaustive inquiry into pardons and paroles granted during Walton's regime. It was having its difficulties, however, in expediting matters.

"The house that Jack bought," the present executive mansion purchased last spring by the governor with the assistance of mortgages and notes nobody wanted to buy until a public spirited oil man came to the rescue, and the solicitous aid of the seller, W. D. Caldwell, former Oklahoma City banker, had its day in court as charge No. 4 of the 22 brought against the governor.

Some of Oklahoma's wealthiest citizens appeared on the stand to tell why they did or did not contribute to securing Walton his present residence.

It was not until when the prosecution

The defendant admitted giving four checks on the Clarksburg bank to local merchants, and there were not sufficient funds to make the payment. The checks totalled $22.84, which added to the costs amounted to nearly $30. The defendant paid up the checks and costs, and his minimum fine of $100 was withheld as long as he behaves.

RICHMOND MAN HELD IN A LOVE TRIANGLE

Clarence Petro Admits Leaving
Hotel Room Soon After Earl
Slusher Shoots Wife And Self

WIFE WILLING TO FORGIVE

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 16—Clarence Petro, 25, alleged to be the "other man" in the love triangle which ended when Earl Slusher, 23, barber of Hagerstown, killed his girl-wife, Evelyn, 19, and then ended his own life, was held today charged with a statutory offense and carrying concealed weapons pending further investigation into affairs leading up to the double tragedy last night.

Petro, according to police, has signed a written confession in which he admits associating with Mrs. Slusher. He left the hotel room shortly before Slusher entered, shot his wife and killed himself.

The wife of Petro today said she had known of Petro's alleged unfaithfulness, but was willing to forgive him if he would come back to the family.

Slusher, arriving here yesterday from Hagerstown, found his wife in a hotel, registered as Mrs. J. B. Smith. Lino, O. Petro, who had previously registered as J. B. Smith, was in the room with Mrs. Slusher when her husband told the desk clerk he intended seeing her in her room. The clerk went to the room and warned Petro of Slusher's presence. Petro left.

After Slusher went to his wife's room, the clerk heard two shots fired. Both were found shot through the head.

Petro is a grocer.

PHONE OPERATOR SAVES CITY FROM BANDIT RAID

Presence of Mind of Mrs. Addie Farrell Prevents Robbery at Hoopston, Ill. Early Today

WIRES CUT, SOUNDS ALARM

Hoopston, Ill., Nov. 16—Presence of mind of Mrs. Addie Farrell, night operator at the local telephone exchange, early today saved this city from an organized bandit raid.

Nine yegs in two automobiles swooped down on the town shortly after midnight, cut 1300 telephone lines, and started to blow the safes in the two banks and the postoffice.

When her lines were cut, Mrs. Farrell realized immediately that something was wrong. The thought of bandits immediately flashed across her mind and without a moment's hesitation she turned in a general fire alarm which rings a big bell in the tower of the city hall.

As the bell started to toll, night watchmen, policemen, firemen and citizens flocked into the streets. The yegs, frightened by the ringing of the bell, were almost cut off from their automobile by the gathering citizens. They made good their escape, however, though citizens still are combing timber land in this vicinity in search of them. The robbers secured no loot.

Hoopston today is almost cut off from wire communication with the outside world. One cable running to the north and one to the south maintained outside world connection. Telephone and telegraph companies say it will be several days before the damage can be repaired.

SHOOT TO KILL POSSES' ORDERS

Armed Men Search Rugged Country
Near Kelliher, Minn., For Slayer
of Four Persons

LEONARD PORTANO SOUGHT

Forces Sweetheart, 15, to Witness
Murder of Her Parents, Suitor
And Deputy Sheriff

(By United Press)

Kelliher, Minn., Nov. 16—While orders to shoot to kill, heavy armed posses today swept the rugged country for miles around in a hunt for a mad killer who shot four persons to death following a quarrel over a girl.

Maddened by days of brooding, Leonard Portano, the slayer, forced the girl, Myrtle Sanders, 15, to accompany him on his mission of death yesterday. He forced her to witness the killing of her parents and another suitor and a deputy sheriff.

Early today the girl was found in the slayer's cabin where she had been a prisoner all night.

"Pretty soon we found Dad, and he (Portano) cursed and swore. He took Papa into a cabin and tied him to a bed-post. Dad told him he was a crazy wop, and that made him mad. He raved around a while and then he shot Papa through the head."

"Come on," he said, and we went across the timber to the road. He ran and dragged me. Then the man (Marshall Wilson) came by, and Len shot him. Timmy came by pretty soon and he shot him too."

"I went with him to his cabin and he told me to keep quiet and not say anything."

Wilson had been notified of the shooting of Timmy and was on his way to arrest him when he was killed.

Portano left a note in his camp, which was found by Sheriff Arthur Johnson of Bemidji. In it he confessed having killed the four.

It was nearly noon yesterday when Portano argued with Oscar Timmy, a farmer near here about the girl. A fight followed in which Portano shot Timmy, wounding him.

It was here that Myrtle picked up the story of the slayings and told it in detail to Sheriff Anderson.

"Leonard came to the house and was mad," said little Myrtle. "I didn't know what he had done, but he demanded that I should go with him. My mother didn't want me to and he shot her. Then he ran from the place."

Portano later called Dr. M. Bone at Kelliher and told him where he would find the bodies of his victims. Portano then fled from his camp, heading into the woods.

Sheriff Johnson stationed eleven men about the camp and brought the girl here. He is undetermined what to do with her. He said she is somewhat simple-minded and her conversation evidenced that she has little understanding of what has happened. She seemed either dazed or unconcerned.

Portano had a lumber camp six miles north of here and employed several loggers. Mrs. Williams, camp cook, said Portano was "crazy" and that he kept everybody in terror.

Ever since his brother took him into court nearly a year ago for alienating his wife's affections, she said, Portano has been "mean." Mrs. Williams and Sheriff Johnson believe that Portano may have disposed of his brother and his wife. Others in Kelliher however, believe that the brother Nicholas fled with his wife to the Iron range east of here.

REORGANIZATION OF AGENCIES SUGGESTED

First Volume of Three Volume Survey of Protestant Religious Education in Indiana Released

DIRECTED BY W. S. ANTERAN

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16—Reorganization of the numerous Sunday school and church supervisory agencies in Indiana is recommended in the first volume of a three volume survey of Protestant religious education in Indiana.

The survey was made under the direction of Walter S. Anteran, in Connecticut with the Interchurch World movement.

Survey of rural church conditions was made in Clinton county and Jefferson county, and in city churches in Indianapolis, Evansville, Terre Haute, Crawfordsville, Muncie, Huntington, Gary, Madison and Frankfort.

Among other things, the survey showed: Adolescent boys and young men are practically untouched by the recent missionary societies promoted by local churches.

The cost of operating a typical Indiana Sunday school is about $2 per Sunday.

Only one pupil of every hundred in the Sunday school is of foreign birth.

The average age of the Sunday school pupil is 11.4 years.

WHENCE COMES TROUBLE?
—When he giveth quietness who then can make trouble?—Job 34: 29.Tax Distribution

It has been shown twice a year for the past several years that approximately three-fourth of the taxes paid in Rush county are used on the roads and schools. People have been demanding better roads and better schools. Therefore, if taxes have doubled in the last ten years, the taxpayers have no one but themselves to blame.

It is a favorite theme for many taxpayers to blame causes far removed from those that are actually to be blamed. We are told that the state conservation commission is wasteful and accomplishes no good. Whether that charge is correct, has not been determined, but it is a fact that the state of Indiana received only $5,738.38 from Rush county in the semi-annual settlement this fall, which is the amount that Rush county contributes for six months as its share of paying the state's bills. This amount is almost insignificant when it is considered that total tax collections in Rush county for six months were close to a half million dollars.

We are told, too, that the state highway commission is a wasteful, extravagant and unnecessary institution.

HARDWOOD CENTER OF ATTRACTION TONIGHT

BASKETBALL IN BIG GOBS TONIGHT

White Rushville is at Columbus. Many County Teams Will be in Action on Home Floors

WEBB, MANILLA TO GRAPPLE

Raleigh And Moscow Will Have a Real Battle And Morristown Will be up at Carthage

GAMES TONIGHT

Rushville at Columbus.
Rushville Seconds at Morristown.
Rushville girls at New Salem.
Webb and Manilla at Rushville.
Raleigh at Moscow.
Milroy at Waldron.
Morristown at Carthage.
Whiteland at Greensburg.
Shelbyville at Mooresville.
Liberty and Connersville at Brownsville.
Center Grove at Edinburg.
Washington at Vincennes.
Zionsville at Carmel.

With Rushville playing at Columbus tonight, there will be basketball galore in these parts. The second team from the local high school will journey over to tackle the Morristown second team, and the Rushville girls will try their luck on the New Salem floor.

The outcome of any of these games is uncertain. Columbus has a fast team, and it will take exceptional playing on the part of Coach Swain's players to put across a win. Comella and Sherman have been holding down the back guard position this week on account of the injury sustained last week by Readdle, when he suffered a broken bone in his right ankle.

The second team has been weakened by Sherman and Warth who have been advanced to the first string line-up, but Coach Swain has plenty of material in which to work out a fast combination in the team.

Tonight the Webb high school will provide entertainment here when they meet the Manilla team, and the contest will give an idea as to the strength of these two county contenders.

The real scrap in the county tonight will take place on the Blue Ridge floor, between Raleigh and Moscow, and there is no doubt but what this game will be a hard fought one.

Carthage and Morristown will play at Carthage tonight, and from all indications Carthage should win. Milroy will make a big attempt to win from Waldron on their floor tonight.

Harvard won from Princeton 5-0, while 50,000 persons looked on. This shows Dinsmore, Princeton star, trying to pass the Harvard outpost—unsuccessfully. The Crimson defense was perfect. Note how the players are closing in on him.

HITTING 'EM AND MISSING 'EM

On to Columbus tonight, gang. Do your best, and may that best be a victory.

Webb tells us that they are going to beat Manilla here tonight. Watch 'em 'em.

R. H. S. girls will play at New Salem tonight. R. H. S. second team plays at Morristown, and varsity at Columbus. Gee, we can't be three places at once.

SEYMOUR WANTS A BATH

Seymour is lamenting the fact that cold showers are not good for players after a game, and they have no means of heating the water. Judging from the 50 to 10 score of last week, Seymour needs something else besides a bath.

WELCOME, THRICE WELCOME! Holy Mackerel! Welcome to our midst "Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em." We were just wondering when you were going to step to the front and support the great cause—Newcastle Courier.

Same here, Newcastle. We were just wondering what had become of "Markin' 'em up." You'll have a job keeping those four teams straight, and plenty of markin' to do.

THEY'RE AFTER YOU, MANILLA

Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em:—Being a fond follower of your column, I thought I should do my share. So I have a few remarks here. Hoping for acceptance in your column: "Whoa! Why does 'Manilla practice on Webb's floor—the Modern Appliance building?" "How about this for a good game Friday night—Webb vs Manilla." Yours for success H. C. P.

NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS

The assistant editor of the Rushville, the official high school paper, has asked Hittin' 'em if he wouldn't have our busy statistician find out for him, how many women of this country dye in the beauty parlors? That's quite a job, Franklin.

WE'LL GIVE 'EM AWAY

Newcastle is beginning to spread propaganda for glass banking boards. Before you buy any Newcastle, come down and look ours over—the ones we bought last year.

Markin' 'em up wonders what would have happened to Connersville last Saturday night, if Milroy had had their regular line-up.

OUR AMANIAS CLUB

"Even if Columbus beats us 60 points," said our R. H. S. Dan Belle, "you can never make me believe but what Rushville has the best team in the state, and our boys didn't want to make Columbus feel bad on their own, new gym floor."

WE'D FORGET IT, GEORGIE Gawe down at Vincennes, is having a terrible time explaining how his champs got beat last Friday night. It must be a jolt to tumble after winning 40 some odd straight games without a defeat.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Susie's hand has just learned a new piece—"Hail, Hail, the gangs all here."

Put on The Iron Mittens, Oswald

Oswald, Oswald, the rubber axe please, Percy, the cake eater, says the affair with Hagerstown will be a pink tea, and he has proceeded to get out the tea cups. However, we disagree—Markin' 'em up, Newcastle

MAYBE WE DO NEED A LITTLE SYMPATHY

Rushville versus Columbus Friday night. No hard feelings Rushville, but Markin' 'em Up predicts a win for Columbus, judging from the score of the Columbus-Seymour game last Friday night.

After Hittin' 'em saw Hagerstown perform last Friday night, we sorta feel sorry for Newcastle tonight, also.

KNOW THE GAME AS IT IS BEING PLAYED

Question: When the ball is tossed up by the referee in center or elsewhere, are both players obliged to jump and make an effort to tap the ball?

Answer: No. If, however, neither player taps the ball, the referee should toss it up again at the same place, and order both players to jump and make an honest attempt to tap it. Failure to comply with the referee's order is a foul on one or both for delaying the game.

Question: What must be the position of the feet when jumping in center or elsewhere

Answer: The feet of each player must be within his half of the circle.

Yale Picked Over Tigers

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Nov. 16—With some of the major teams going out under heavy fire and others easing up in preparation for next week's assault, tomorrow's football schedule is very unevenly balanced.

Yale, Penn State, Penn, Washington and Jefferson, Colgate and Syracuse have heavy engagements in the east, and Michigan and Wisconsin go into big battle in the middle west, but the rest of the schedule is rather mild.

Yale and Princeton engage in the second conflict of the "Big Three" champions, a game that will be at least the biggest spectacle of the day.

Yale has been waiting impatiently for more than three years for a team that would be able to bring Yale out of the hole and the Elis are looking to "Memphis Bill" Malloy's eleven to do the trick this year.

Despite the loss of Charley O'Hearn, around whom the entire Yale offense has been built, the Yale eleven looks to be a better team than those of the last two years and, on the other hand, Princeton is not as powerful.

The gameness of the Tiger eleven and the alertness of the team which has become traditional at Nassau will be sure to give Yale a fight from whistle to whistle.

Penn State and Pennsylvania, two old rivals, will provide one of the best games of the day in the new Pennsylvania stadium. Penn State has an All-American halfback in Harry Wilson, and a team of the well-known Bezdck thoroughness and even the improved Penn eleven will have a terrific fight to beat the State eleven.

Pittsburgh and Washington and Jefferson, another pair of traditional rivals, will provide another interesting game in Pittsburgh.

Two defeats at the hands of Syracuse and Carnegie Tech have been suffered by Pittsburgh, but they were the fault of an over-heavy schedule as much as anything else.

After rest of one week, Pittsburgh is bound to be in better shape and the Panthers should give the Presidents a hard fight.

Colgate and Syracuse ought to furnish some of the hardest football on the day's schedule. Both teams have figured prominently all through the season in the east.

Colgate, it is true, fell before Cornell, but it happened when Colgate was badly crippled by loss of Tyrone, one of the greatest backs in the east.

Syracuse has shown consistently good form all season.

WABASH NOT AT ITS BEST FOR I. U. GAME

Hope to Make Resumption of Athletic Relations With Indiana Saturday a Victory

GIANT FULLBACK IS OUT

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 16—Although not at their best, the Little Giants of Wabash College believe they can mark the resumption of athletic relations between Wabash and Indiana with a victory in the football game to be played Saturday afternoon at Bloomington.

While the game following this one, that with DePauw, ancient rivals of Wabash, is all-important in the eyes of Wabash men, nearly the entire student body will go to Bloomington to witness the contest Saturday. Arrangements are being made to charter a special train.

Johnnie Johnson will play full back in place of Gipson who is out with injuries. Johnson's work has been so credible that he has been honored by football critics not only in the state, but received the distinction of getting a conspicuous place in the

Independents Headed By Mark Bills. Former Rush County Boy

The Noblesville A. C. basketball team, with an all star line-up, will play the Fairview Athletic Club Saturday night at the high school gymnasium in Fairview. Mark Bills of Washington township, who is coaching the Noblesville high school team, will be on the Noblesville team. Bills is a former DePauw university basketball star.

Fairview has a good line-up and will give Noblesville a hard tussle. Fairview lost a game, this week to Greensburg on the Y. M. C. A. floor in that city, and the rough places have been gone over, and the team put in good shape.

RUSHVILLE RAMBLERS DEFEATED BY WESTLAND

Local Independent Basketball Team Loses at Carthage by Score of 13 to 11

SCORE TIED AT THE HALF

The Rushville Ramblers were defeated Wednesday night at Carthage by the Westland Independent team, 13 to 11, in a hard fought contest. The game was tied 6 to 6, at the first half. The Westland team was composed for the most part of last year's Carthage high school team.

Lane Scheltz of Laurel, who starred for the Indianapolis Technical high school team last year, will play with the Rushville team from now on, it is announced, and he will add much to the strength of the Ramblers.

The line-up of the game is as follows:

Dyer F	Dagler
White C	Culp
Addison G	Herkless
Hawkins G	Downey

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cotton entertained last Sunday with a dinner party, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Gross of Manilla and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton of near Carthage.

About twenty-five couples attended the dance given at the K. of P. hall in West Second street Thursday evening. The McGinnis orchestra composed of five pieces furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert West entertained at their home east of the city Sunday with a dinner party. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beber, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Crim, son Eugene and daughter Oletha, Mrs. Charles Gruell, grandson Thomas, Lorene Gruell, and Ed West, Mr. and Mrs. Harry York were guests in the afternoon.

The marriage of Mrs. Elsie Lewis, daughter of Lot Berkeley, of this city, to Dr. Thomas B. Gullefer, a well known physician and surgeon of Greensburg, was announced in Thursday's issue of the Greensburg Daily News. The wedding was performed October 15 at Warsaw, Ky., and the announcement was a distinct surprise to their many friends in Greensburg and this city. Mrs. Lewis was formerly employed in a store in Akron, Ohio, until a few weeks ago. They are residing in the Grover building in Greensburg.

The Annual Thank Offering meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Sparks in North Main street. Mrs. E. B. Poundstone gave a very interesting report on the national convention held at Sioux City, Iowa, and Mrs. R. E. Mansfield gave a talk on the children's work. Splendid music was furnished for the meeting by Miss Helen Jaehne and Mrs. Wagoner. This meeting was one of the most interesting held by the society during the past year. At the close of the program the hostess served light refreshments.

Miss Estella Lone Roth, and William Rittenmeier, both residents of this city, were quietly married at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening at their newly furnished rooms in the Maury Flats in East Second street, the Rev. E. G. McKibben performing the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. The bride is well known in this city, being a graduate of the local high school, and was employed at the offices of the L. & C. Traction Company. Mr. Rittenmeier is employed as a mechanic by Mullins & Taylor, Inc.

The Priscilla Literary Club was graciously entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Arnold, near Falmouth, with a majority of the members and two guests Mrs. Pearl Hinchman and daughter Ruth, of Rushville, in attendance. The responses to the roll call were suggestions for next year's program. An interesting paper, "The History of Macaroni," was prepared and read by Mrs. Donald Foster and Mrs. Howard Kehl gave a reading entitled "Pumpkin Pie" by John Greenleaf Whittier. During the social hour the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon, November 30, at the home of Mrs. Sherman Hill.

The Rushville chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met November 15, 1923, with Mrs. Martha Grindle. Twenty-eight members and four guests were present. During the business session it was decided instead of having the usual grab bag and Christmas meeting, each member should bring some article for filling a box to be sent to Ellis Island for D. A. R. social service work in the detention ward. More pledges were received for the William Henry Harrison Mansion, $10,000 state endowment fund. Mrs. Charles Offutt gave a group of two beautiful solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. D. H. Dean. Miss Eva Ball gave a review of the book "Seth Way," a continuation of the history of New Harmony when it became an intellectual center. The review was instructive interesting and beautifully given. The hostess and assistants, Mrs. Sallie Case, Mrs. Fanny Ayres, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Mrs. Mae Stiers and Miss Alice Norris served the refreshments.

"Doc" Bynum told how he secured Walton the agreement of E. W. Marland, one of the wealthiest of the state's oil, and corporation magnates to buy notes offered by the governor in lieu of a $30,000 balance due to complete payment on the now executive mansion. Marland himself lies too ill to come to the capitol to testify and his man Friday, Frank Lucas, a rather startled individual who was quizzed at some length by Senators anxious to know how the great man conducted his business, testified.

Until Bynum took the stand, the defense had all the better of Monday's arguments. The doctor, who had acted as Walton's executive counselor until appointed banking commissioner, testified not only as to transactions and "understandings" connected with Walton's purchase of his home—but also fed the flames of prosecution with a story of how the governor came constantly to him for "campaign funds" after the inauguration.

The governor sat with his counsel at a table in the center of the senate chamber. His fighting poise was discarded.

Rather pale of face, Walton's curiously heavy-lidded eyes which have just a suggestion of protuberance, looked tired as though the strain of the charges was telling on him. His is a "poker face" though, showing no trace of emotion whatever the statements of witnesses against him.

Kelp-O-Dine

One reason for the remarkable health of sea-faring people is the fact that their foods are rich in the tonic and indispensable iodine. Iodine is not available in foods grown in inland regions, and the lack of it impairs the health. The iodine has been washed free from inland soil by the rains of ages, it is not available in the foods, and the body suffers because of the lack of it.

Kelp-O-Dine remedies this iodine deficiency in the diet, by supplying the pure saline iodine in nature's form and in the right amount. It makes your diet whole by supplying the one essential element your food lacks. By doing so it promotes the general health, prevents and relieves goitre, corrects faulty metabolism and acts as a general tonic. Your druggist has Kelp-O-Dine. One dollar a bottle.

Why be Feeble?

ADVANCING years should not mean the approach of a period of dependency—of crutches and canes—of worry, care and fatigue!

Don't dread the days ahead! Be prepared to grapple with the henchmen of Old Age—with rheumatism—with undermined health—with feebleness. The system that is free from impurities—through which rich red blood tingles need not worry about advancing years. Enlist the aid of S. S. S.—the builder of red blood cells—to fight off the infirmities of Old Age.

With the aid of S. S. S. when you reach this stage of life the nerve power that has been built up by ever increasing blood cells—the vim and vigor of youth that you possess will capably enable you to enjoy the advantages of passing years, while others less fortunate are feeble and dependent.

S. S. S. for nearly a century has been serving as a valuable and time honored assistant in the fight for hale and hearty Old Age. It is made only of pure vegetable ingredients and is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

Looks Like 1914

Now is the time to fight constipation with Bran—Start to-day!

Don't give the diseases that follow in the track of constipation a chance to lodge in your system! Get after constipation with nature's greatest helper—BRAN, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled—because it is ALL BRAN and because it will give you permanent relief from constipation! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation and it will do that.

Bran's action is wonderful. It sweeps and cleanses and purifies. It knocks out the dangerous toxic poisons and frees the system from pollution! Try Kellogg's Bran for a week. Eat it regularly—two tablespoonfuls each day; as much each meal in chronic cases. You will be astounded at the difference in your feelings!

Kellogg's Bran should not be confused with common bran which is unpalatable and difficult to eat. Kellogg's is cooked and all ready to serve and really delicious. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal or cook or mix it with hot cereal. In the latter cases add two tablespoonfuls for each person.

Do you realize what Kellogg's Bran can do for you and for your family; do you realize that it will keep sickness away; that it will put every one on a new health footing; that it will free you all from pills and cathartics?

Kellogg's Bran is particularly delightful made in raisin bread, in macaroons, popovers, muffins, etc. Recipes are printed on each package!

You will say that Kellogg's Bran is a blessing to humanity.

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran!

Burley Tobacco Growers Given Until December 1 to Sign Up

By vote of the Board of Directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association it was decided to close the books of the Association for membership agreements for the 1923 crop on December 1. Before the close of the books we want to make this final appeal to all now outside the Association to join us in the greatest effort that has ever been made to obtain for farmers a fair price for a farm product.

YOU WHO ARE STILL OUTSIDE

Have enjoyed for the past two years better prices created by the co-operation of your neighbors and friends. We now feel that it is no more than fair that you should come and work with, and not against, those who have made the price for you. We appeal to you, therefore, to sign up NOW. What would the price of Burley Tobacco be today without an organization. The stronger the organization the better will be the price.

HELP STRENGTHEN THE ORGANIZATION

Look up some member of the association, get a blank contract, sign and mail it to the association at Lexington AT ONCE.

TO MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

We urge you to solicit once more your neighbors who are out and try to sign them. Let us make it 100,000 members by December 1.

INDIANA DUMPERS TO BE PROSECUTED

The Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association will prosecute all pending suits against dumpers to a conclusion at the next term of court and will protect all loyal growers by suing contract breakers wherever they may be reported in the state.

Madam Hamilton To Appear At Milroy Under Juniors' Auspices

The Junior Class of Milroy high school will present Madam Hamilton in a program of readings and impersonations next Monday evening. Madam Hamilton, who is a Southern woman, a resident of Nashville, Tenn., is making an extended tour of the middle west and is appearing in a number of Rush county towns, including Mays and Arlington. Reports from the towns Madam Hamilton has visited are all to the effect that she has been splendidly received by her audiences.

The program is divided between lighter numbers in the negro dialect and the reading of the famous play, "Within the Law." Madam Hamilton is said to possess a supreme mastery of the negro dialect.

The Junior Class is confronted with the necessity of earning money for the carrying out of certain regular social activities which take place later in the year. The class has had a monopoly on the sale of chocolate in the school for school weeks, from which undertaking they have realized several dollars profit.

MOVIES

Intense Picture at Mystic

Winding up in a dramatic climax in a courtroom, where society's feathery and fancies are dragged through the shameful fire of scandal until class-hardened hearts are purified and set free from their shame and pretense, "The Power of Life," brought a story of intense emotional character and cold logical value to the screen of the Mystic Theatre today, as an all star Universal attraction.

The story was originally a novel and play by Johann Bojer and as such created a stir in those hypercritical circles of the literary and theatrical worlds wherein "What does it mean?" is the guiding motif of judgment. Charles Kenyon of "Kindling" fame made the screen adaptation and George Archambault, one of the sons of France that have been given by the land of art to the American motion picture industry, guided the filming.

What is "The Power of a Lie"? It is the accumulated force of accumulated deceit, the mighty swing of the arm of fraud through the ranks of society. What starts as a dainty little deceit may end in tragedy and ruin, a fact which the picture tells dramatically, clearly.

Mabel Jullienne Scott, June Elvidge, David Torrance, Maude George, Earl Metcalf, Phillips Smalley, Winston Miller, Ruby LaFayette and Stanton Heck play the highly emotional roles. Such a cast and the personnel of the producing unit would assure the average prospective patron that the picture is out of the ordinary and decidedly worth seeing.

Week-End at Princess

Douglas MacLean, star of many past Thomas H. Ince productions, has the leading role in "The Sunshine Trail", a zippy western comedy-drama with a new twist which is running at the Princess today and Saturday. The cast of "The Sunshine Trail" also includes Edith Roberts, Little Muriel Frances Dana, Josephine Sedgwick, William Courtwright, Barney Furey, Rex Cherryman and Albert Hart. Thomas H. Ince's latest photoplay was directed by James Horne and was adapted by Bradley King from the story by William Wallace Cook.

The picture tells the amusing story of a doughboy-cowboy who returns from the war, just three years late, to find that his girl is engaged to be married to "the other fellow" in the belief that her soldier sweetheart is dead. The doughboy, who has been given a fine memorial funeral by his fellow townsmen, is greeted as an imposter when he comes home. After a series of adventures which are both thrilling and amusing, he is thrown into jail. There's a surprise ending that carries a big kick.

At Castle Two Days

Alice Calhoun, the charming star in "The Angel of Crooked Street," a dramatic story of the life of a young girl sent to a reformatory on circumstantial evidence, and who, when she comes out, associates with crooks but remains unsinched and seeks revenge from the woman who wrongs her, will be shown at the Castle Theatre today and Saturday.

The picture is one that will hold the attention and appeal to the average picture goer. It presents Alice Calhoun at her best.

The star while considering the different productions in which she had appeared, and the success made by each, wrote a short article bringing in the titles of all her pictures, which is reproduced below: "The Angel of Crooked Street" is a "Charming Deceiver" called "Princess Jones," who had "The Dream" about how "Peggy Puts It Over" in "The Matrimonial Web" with "The Little Minister" behind "Closed Doors," when the neighbors thought it was "Everybody's Business" and they were "Locked Out" from the "Blue Blood" society called "The Rainbow."

Many women have the foolish notion that glasses are a disfigurement.

On the contrary, they are an asset to your appearance if you wear a pair to fit every occasion—the ballroom, the movies, outdoor sports and reading or sewing.

M'CRAY ADMITS SIGNING NAMES OF FARM MANAGERS TO NOTES

Governor Explains Action by Saying
That The Responsibility Was All

IN BANKRUPTCY HEARING

Also Admits That When He Became
Governor, State Deposits at Kent-
land Were Increased

BROWN LOANED $155,000

Governor Declares That He Gave
$37,746 Notes as Collateral—
Brown Denies This

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16—Admission that he had signed the names of farm managers to notes and later obtained the approval of the managers to the action, was made by Governor McCray in today's hearing on a petition to have him declared bankrupt.

McCray said he had signed the names of Frank Henderson, manager of the Hickory Island Stock farm, and that of a man named Pickett, whose first name he could not remember, to the paper.

He explained this action by saying that the responsibility was his anyway and the banks never asked about the second name on the note but bought the paper on his endorsement.

McCray also admitted that when he became governor the amount of state funds on deposit in the Discount and Deposit State bank at Kentland, of which the governor was president, was increased from $40,000 to about $145,000.

When McCray was questioned regarding the $155,000 of the funds of the state board of agriculture which passed through his hands, he testified that I. Newt Brown, secretary-treasurer of the board, loaned him the money and that he gave Brown $37,746 in notes as collateral.

Brown declared the money was intended for deposit in McCray's bank at Kentland, Ind.

The hearing before Harry C. Sheridan, master in charge was slow in starting today.

McCray took the stand and was questioned by W. J. Vesey, one of the attorneys for the three Fort Wayne banks, which instituted the bankruptcy proceedings against the governor.

Vesey asked McCray about certain notes which were reported to have been endorsed with the names of his farm managers without their knowledge.

McCray said he had signed the names of Frank Henderson and a man named Pickett, farm managers, to notes. He said he had verbal authority from Henderson to sign his name, but did not remember whether Pickett had given him the same privilege.

"What was your purpose in signing their names?" Vesey asked.

"The responsibility was the same whether I signed as endorser or not," McCray replied. "The banks required a two name paper. They were buying paper on my endorsement."

"How do you know?"

"Because they did not ask about the makers."

McCray said he wanted to resign as president of the Kentland bank when he was elected governor in 1920 but that the directors objected.

"After you became governor, you were about to obtain considerable state funds for deposit in your bank were you not?" Vesey asked.

"Yes," McCray replied. "But it had state deposits before I was governor."

"What did they amount to?"

"$40,000 I believe."

"You increased that amount largely, did you not?"

"Yes."

"Until that it got as high as $150,000?"

"Yes."

Vesey took up the board of agriculture loan of $155,000 to McCray.

"You say the board of agriculture loaned you $155,000," Vesey said.

"What security did the board of agriculture have?"

"I turned over to the board notes"

TWO COMPLAINTS ON NOTES

Judgments Sought in Cases Filed in Circuit Court

Two complaints on notes were filed today in the circuit court, one case filed by Andrew Runneholm against Rosa B. Worland Miller, et al., in which the plaintiff seeks $1,230 judgment with accrued interest on a note that is alleged to be past due.

The plaintiff also seeks to foreclose a mortgage, given as security for the note, and which involves real estate.

In the other complaint on a note, Charles H. Tompkins is plaintiff and Orle Blackburn, defendant, in which $600 judgment is demanded on a note that is said to be several years past due.

TRUE BILLS AGAINST EDWARDSPOY YEGGS

Grand Jury Returns Indictments
Charging Armstrong and Jones
With Murder

HELD IN TERRE HAUTE JAIL

(By United Press)

Vincennes, Ind., Nov. 16—True bills charging Theodore Armstrong and William Jones, Bicknell coal miners, with first degree murder for the shooting of Charles Wright, Edwardsport bank cashier, were returned by the Knox county grand jury today.

The two men under indictment are held in the jail at Terre Haute for safe keeping because of threatened mob violence against them.

Wright was killed when two masked bandits attempted to hold up the bank a week ago. Five hours after the shooting Armstrong and Jones were arrested and put through an all-night grilling.

Armstrong, according to Knox county authorities, confessed to the shooting and implicated Jones. The latter maintained his innocence throughout.

The Knox county grand jury was called into special session and its finding was made after about 100 witnesses from Bicknell and Edwardsport had been examined.

PROGRAM FOR WEEK IS READY

Meetings Arranged For in Fifteen
Communities in Rush County to
Stress Education

MINISTERS WILL CO-OPERATE

Members of Rushville Kiwanis And
Rotary Clubs to Carry Message
Throughout County

American Education Week will be observed in Rush county next week with public meetings in every community in which there is a school house, Birney D. Farthing, county school superintendent, having arranged for fifteen of them, beginning Monday and continuing until Saturday night.

Members of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs of Rushville have volunteered their services to carry the message of Education Week throughout the county.

Many Rush county ministers will deliver sermons on the subject in their churches Sunday, showing the importance of education in the life of every American citizen.

Benjamin J. Burris, state superintendent of public instruction, has promised his co-operation and will speak at the opening meeting at Manilla Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to be held in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Burris' address will feature the program which is being planned by the school, as Mr. Burris is an authority on Indiana school problems, many residents of Rush and Shelby counties will be interested in attending this function. This is the second community meeting to be held at the Manilla school and from all indications a large audience will greet Mr. Burris on this occasion.

Monday being set aside as Constitution Day, Law Lewis, former trustee of Walker township, will distribute one hundred copies of the constitution of the United States and of Indiana.

The High School Chorus and the Girl's Glee Club will provide the musical numbers on the program. Other features will be added so that the different phases of American Education Week will be properly observed and emphasized.

The Kiwanis and Rotary clubs are arranging special Education Week programs for their regular meetings next week.

The program for American Education Week

EDUCATION WEEK PROCLAMATION

Through all the past ages it has been an acknowledged fact that the man of knowledge gained by his most energetic tireless efforts, is more able to render to his community the service required to solve the vital problems that come to us. There is an obligation each will have to perform. Then it behooves us to prepare and construct for the future posterity an educational program that is of equal access to all. I would suggest a law being passed whereby school attendance be raised from sixteen to eighteen. I therefore proclaim as mayor of the city of Rushville that American Education Week be observed from the 18th to the 24th of November.

WALTER THOMAS,
Mayor of Rushville.

COUNTY PRINCIPALS GOING TO BLOOMINGTON

No Meeting Held Today On Account
of Plan To Attend State Conference Next Week

ALL BUT THREE TO ATTEND

The Rush County Principals association, which was to have held their regular monthly session today in the office of County Superintendent B. D. Farthing, was not held. The members of the association will leave next Friday for Bloomington to attend the State High School Principals' Conference.

The meeting at Bloomington will occupy two days, closing Saturday afternoon with the annual home coming day at Indiana University and the football game between Indiana and Purdue.

All of the principals in this county will attend, excepting three, Lyle Power of Milroy, whose school is handicapped for lost time on account of the heating plant, L. A. Lockwood of Carthage, whose assistant is ill, and J. M. Koch of Manilla.

E. B. Butler of the Rushville city schools will accompany the Rush county members. A two days program has been arranged, and it is pointed out that much benefit will be derived from the meeting.

The meeting next week will take the place of the one scheduled for today.

WALTON SEES A CONSPIRACY

Suspended Governor of Oklahoma
Asserts Opposition To Ku Klux
Klan is Responsible

BACKBONE OF HIS DEFENSE

Says In Ended Impeachment Was
Started When He Called Troops
To Protect Citizens

(By United Press)

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 16.—A concerted conspiracy by Oklahoma house and senate members to drive from office Governor J. C. Walton because of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan was charged today by the suspended executive.

"This intended impeachment was started when I suspended the right of habeas corpus and summoned troops to protect the rights of citizens from the Klan," was the governor's version co-incident with summons served on commercial telegraph companies to present telegrams exchanged between legislators since September 10.

In support of his charge which is to be the backbone of the defense, Walton hopes to present:

1—Records and membership rolls of the Ku Klux Klan which N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the realm of Oklahoma, has been summoned to bring to the senate.

2—Telegrams exchanged by legislators, particularly a "show" sent to the capitol by Klansmen urging that the "goods" be delivered.

3—Testimony of some 150 or 200 Oklahomans to outrages attributed to the Klan.

Meanwhile, the senate court resumed its exhaustive inquiry into pardons and paroles granted during Walton's regime. It was having its difficulties, however, in expediting matters.

"The house that Jack bought," the present executive mansion purchased last spring by the governor with the assistance of mortgages and notes nobody wanted to buy until a public spirited oil man came to the rescue, and the solicitous aid of the seller, W. D. Caldwell, former Oklahoma City banker, had its day in court as "charge No. 4 of the 22 brought against the governor.

Some of Oklahoma's wealthiest citizens appeared on the stand to tell why they did or did not contribute to securing Walton his present residence.

It was not until when the prosecution

SENTENCE, FINE WITHHELD

J. R. Whittaker of Near Mays Makes
Good Bad Checks

J. R. Whittaker of near Mays, was arraigned Thursday afternoon in Justice Steel's court on a charge of issuing bad checks, and after pleading guilty, the court withheld sentence pending good behavior.

The defendant admitted giving four checks on the Clarksburg bank to local merchants, and there were not sufficient funds to make the payment. The checks totalled $22.84, which added to the costs amounted to nearly $30. The defendant paid up the checks and costs, and his minimum fine of $100 was withheld as long as he behaves.

RICHMOND MAN HELD IN A LOVE TRIANGLE

Clarence Petro Admits Leaving
Hotel Room Soon After Earl
Slusher Shoots Wife And Self

WIFE WILLING TO FORGIVE

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 16—Clarence Petro, 25, alleged to be the "other man" in the love triangle which ended when Earl Slusher, 23, barber of Hagerstown, killed his girl-wife, Evelyn, 19, and then ended his own life, was held today charged with a statutory offense and carrying concealed weapons pending further investigation into affairs leading up to the double tragedy last night.

Petro, according to police, has signed a written confession in which he admits associating with Mrs. Slusher. He left the hotel room shortly before Slusher entered, shot his wife and killed himself.

The wife of Petro today said she had known of Petro's alleged unfaithfulness, but was willing to forgive him if he would come back to the family.

Slusher, arriving here yesterday from Hagerstown, found his wife in a hotel, registered as Mrs. J. B. Smith, Lima, O., Petro, who had previously registered as J. B. Smith, was in the room with Mrs. Slusher when her husband told the desk clerk he intended seeing her in her room. The clerk went to the room and warned Petro of Slusher's presence. Petro left.

After Slusher went to his wife's room, the clerk heard two shots fired. Both were found shot through the head.

Petro is a grocer.

WIRES CUT, SOUNDS ALARM

Hoopston, Ill., Nov. 16—Presence of mind of Mrs. Addie Farrell, night operator at the local telephone exchange, early today saved this city from an organized bandit raid.

Nine yeggs in two automobiles swooped down on the town shortly after midnight, cut 1300 telephone lines, and started to blow the safes in the two banks and the postoffice.

When her lines were cut, Mrs. Farrell realized immediately that something was wrong. The thought of bandits immediately flashed across her mind and without a moment's hesitation she turned in a general fire alarm which rings a big bell in the tower of the city hall.

As the bell started to toll, night watchmen, policemen, firemen and citizens flocked into the streets. The yeggs, frightened by the ringing of the bell, were almost cut off from their automobile by the gathering citizens. They made good their escape, however, though citizens still are combing timber land in this vicinity in search of them. The robbers secured no loot.

Hoopston today is almost cut off from wire communication with the outside world. One cable running to the north and one to the south maintained outside world connection. Telephone and telegraph companies say it will be several days before the damage can be repaired.

SHOOT TO KILL POSSES' ORDERS

Armed Men Search Rugged Country
Near Kelliher, Minn., For Slayer
of Four Persons

LEONARD PORTANO SOUGHT

Forces Sweetheart, 15, to Witness
Murder of Her Parents, Suitor
And Deputy Sheriff

(By United Press)

Kelliher, Minn., Nov. 16—While orders to shoot to kill, heavy armed posses today swept the rugged country for miles around in a hunt for a mad killer who shot four persons to death following a quarrel over a girl.

Maddened by days of brooding, Leonard Portano, the slayer, forced the girl, Myrtle Sanders, 15, to accompany him on his mission of death yesterday. He forced her to witness the killing of her parents and another suitor and a deputy sheriff.

Early today the girl was found in the slayer's cabin where she had been a prisoner all night.

"Pretty soon we found Dad, and he (Portano) cursed and swore. He took Papa into a cabin and tied him to a bed-post. Dad told him he was a crazy wop, and that made him mad. He raved around a while and then he shot Papa through the head. 'Come on,' he said, and we went across the timber to the road. He ran and dragged me. Then the man (Marshall Wilson) came by, and Len shot him. Timmy came by pretty soon and he shot him too."

"I went with him to his cabin and he told me to keep quiet and not say anything."

Wilson had been notified of the shooting of Timmy and was on his way to arrest him when he was killed.

Portano left a note in his camp, which was found by Sheriff Arthur Johnson of Bemidji. In it he confessed having killed the four.

It was nearly noon yesterday when Portano argued with Oscar Timmy, a farmer near here about the girl. A fight followed in which Portano shot Timmy, wounding him.

It was here that Myrtle picked up the story of the slayings and told it in detail to Sheriff Anderson.

"Leonard came to the house and was mad," said little Myrtle. "I didn't know what he had done, but he demanded that I should go with him. My mother didn't want me to and he shot her. Then he ran from the place."

Portano later called Dr. M. Bone at Kelliher and told him where he would find the bodies of his victims. Portano then fled from his camp, heading into the woods.

Sheriff Johnson stationed eleven men about the camp and brought the girl here. He is undetermined what to do with her. He said she is somewhat simple-minded and her conversation evidenced that she has little understanding of what has happened. She seemed either dazed or unconcerned.

Portano had a lumber camp six miles north of here and employed several loggers. Mrs. Williams, camp cook, said Portano was "crazy" and that he kept everybody in terror.

Ever since his brother took him into court nearly a year ago for alienating his wife's affections, she said, Portano has been "mean". Mrs. Williams and Sheriff Johnson believe that Portano may have disposed of his brother and his wife. Others in Kelliher however, believe that the brother Nicholas fled with a wife to the Iron range east of here.

REORGANIZATION OF AGENCIES SUGGESTED

First Volume of Three Volume Survey of Protestant Religious Education in Indiana Released

DIRECTED BY W. S. ANTHERAN

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16—Reorganization of the numerous Sunday school and church supervisory agencies in Indiana is recommended in the first volume of a three volume survey of Protestant religious education in Indiana.

The survey was made under the direction of Walter S. Antheran, in Connecticut with the Interchurch World movement.

Survey of rural church conditions was made in Clinton county and Jefferson county, and in city churches in Indianapolis, Evansville, Terre Haute, Crawfordsville, Muncie, Huntington, Gary, Madison and Frankfort. Among other things, the survey showed:

Adolescent boys and young men are practically untouched by the recent missionary societies promoted by local churches.

The cost of operating a typical Indiana Sunday school is about $2 per Sunday.

Only one pupil of every hundred in the Sunday school is of foreign birth.

The average age of the Sunday school pupil is 11.4 years.

WHENCE COMES TROUBLE?
—When he giveth quietness who

Tax Distribution
It has been shown twice a year for the past several years that approximately three-fourth of the taxes paid in Rush county are used on the roads and schools. People have been demanding better roads and better schools. Therefore, if taxes have doubled in the last ten years, the taxpayers have no one but themselves to blame.

It is a favorite theme for many taxpayers to blame causes far removed from those that are actually to be blamed. We are told that the state conservation commission is wasteful and accomplishes no good. Whether that charge is correct, has not been determined, but it is a fact that the state of Indiana received only $5,738.38 from Rush county in the semi-annual settlement this fall, which is the amount that Rush county contributes for six months as its share of paying the state's bills. This amount is almost insignificant when it is considered that total tax collections in Rush county for six months were close to a half million dollars.

We are told, too, that the state highway commission is a wasteful, extravagant and unnecessary institution.

tation. The charge may be true. The indictment has been made and not proven, but the fact remains that Rush county paid only $7,842.56 to the state highway commission in the semi-annual settlement. This is not alone for maintenance of state highways, but for the building of new roads and bridges. At the same time, we should remember that we paid in taxes, $31,369.50 for the repair of gravel roads and $95,682.42 to meet bonds that have been issued to pay for new roads built in Rush county. We should remember, too, that the state highway commission is building some permanent roads and that its system of maintaining the gravel and stone roads is good—so good in fact that state highways as a rule are more desirable for travel than county roads.

So it appears that if there is an honest desire to reduce taxes, those who want them reduced will have to start at home and not go so far afield. To eliminate the state highway commission for example, and do away with that tax, would not be noticeable to the average taxpayer. But it would be noticeable when the roads now maintained by the state highway commission, were out and the taxpayers of that township would have to stand a levy of several cents for ten or twenty years to rebuild the road.

The British Viewpoint?
"America acts without thinking," exclaimed Israel Zangwill, distinguished British writer, in the course of his tirade against nearly everything American. We wonder if he includes the act of America in 1917 and 1918 when American men and money saved the British Empire from impending utter ruin. Or does he mean that we acted without thinking when we turned over almost $10,000,000,000 in loans to European nations, with nothing but their unsecured notes in return?

International Cooperation
The imperial council at London has given approval to the American request for the extension of the 3-mile limit to aid in the apprehension of rum runners. It is intimated that there will be no rigid limit fixed at 12 miles, but that British suspected ships may be searched for contraband at even greater distances from the shore. The decision is a great victory for American diplomacy. For a time it appeared that the request of the United States would be rejected with little ceremony, but the persistence and tact of Secretary Hughes finally carried the day.

Bakers who can't learn how to bake an honest loaf will be brought into court.

GAMES TONIGHT

Rushville at Columbus.
Rushville Seconds at Morristown.
Rushville girls at New Salem.
Webb and Manilla at Rushville.
Raleigh at Moscow.
Milroy at Waldron.
Morristown at Carthage.
Whiteland at Greensburg.

Liberty and Commerceville at Brownsville.
Center Grove at Edinburg.
Washington at Vincennes.
Zionsville at Carmel.

With Rushville playing at Columbus tonight, there will be basketball galore in these parts. The second team from the local high school will journey over to tackle the Morristown second team, and the Rushville girls will try their luck on the New Salem floor.

The outcome of one of these games is uncertain. Columbus has a fast team, and it will take exceptional playing on the part of Coach
Swain's players to put across a win.
Comella and Sherman have been holding down the back guard position this week on account of the injury sustained last week by Readle, when he suffered a broken bone in his right ankle.

The second team has been weakened by Sherman and Warth who have been advanced to the first string line-up, but Coach Swain has plenty of material in which to work out a fast combination in the team.
Tonight the Webb high school will provide entertainment here when they meet the Manilla team, and the contest will give an idea as to the strength of these two county contenders.

The real scrap in the county tonight will take place on the Blue Ridge floor, between Raleigh and Moscow, and there is no doubt but what this game will be a hard fought one.

Carthage and Morristown will play at Carthage tonight, and from all indications Carthage should win.
Milroy will make a big attempt to win
from Waldron on their floor tonight.

quite a job, Franklin.

to make Columbus feel bad on their own, new gym floor."

MAYBE WE DO NEED A
LITTLE SYMPATHY
Rushville versus Columbus Friday night. No hard feelings, Rushville, but Markin' 'em up predicts a win for Columbus, judging from the score of the Columbus-Seymour game last Friday night.

After Hittin' 'em saw Hagerstown perform last Friday night, we sorta feel sorry for Newcastle tonight, also.

KNOW THE GAME AS IT
IS BEING PLAYED

Question: When the ball is tossed up by the referee in center or elsewhere, are both players obliged to jump and make an effort to tap the ball?

Answer: No. If, however, neither player taps the ball, the referee should toss it up again at the same place, and order both players to jump, and make an honest attempt to tap it. Failure to comply with the referee's order is a foul on one or both for delaying the game.

Question: What must be the position of the feet when jumping in center and elsewhere

Answer: The feet of each player must be within his half of the circle.

Yale Picked Over Tigers

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Nov. 16—With some of the major teams going out under heavy fire and others easing up in preparation for next week's assault, tomorrow's football schedule is very unevenly balanced.

Yale, Penn State, Penn, Washington and Jefferson, Colgate and Syracuse have heavy engagements in the east, and Michigan and Wisconsin go into big battle in the middle west, but the rest of the schedule is rather mild.

Yale and Princeton engage in the second conflict of the "Big Three" champions, a game that will be at least the biggest spectacle of the day.

Yale has been waiting impatiently for more than three years for a team that would be able to bring Yale out of the hole and the Elis are looking to "Memphis Bill" Mallory's eleven to do the trick this year.

Despite the loss of Charley O'- Heena, around whom the entire Yale offense has been built, the Yale eleven looks to be a better team than those of the last two years and, on the other hand, Princeton is not as powerful.

The gameness of the Tiger eleven and the alertness of the team which has become traditional at Nassau will be sure to give Yale a fight from whistle to whistle.

Penn State and Pennsylvania, two old rivals, will provide one of the best games of the day in the new Pennsylvania stadium. Penn State has an All-American halfback in Harry Wilson, and a team of the well-known Deadeck thoroughness and even the improved Penn eleven will have a terrific fight to beat the State eleven.

Pittsburgh and Washington and Jefferson, another pair of traditional rivals, will provide another interesting game in Pittsburgh.

Two defeats at the hands of Syracuse and Carnegie Tech have been suffered by Pittsburgh, but they were the fault of an over-heavy schedule
as much as anything else.

After rest of one week, Pittsburgh is bound to be in better shape and the Panthers should give the Presidents a hard fight.

Colgate and Syracuse ought to furnish some of the hardest football on the day's schedule. Both teams have figured prominently all through the season in the east.

Colgate, it is true, fell before Cornell, but it happened when Colgate was badly crippled by loss of Tyrone,
one of the greatest backs in the east.
Syracuse has shown consistently good form all season.

WABASH NOT AT ITS BEST FOR I. U. GAME

Hope to Make Resumption of Athletic Relations With Indiana Saturday a Victory

GIANT FULLBACK IS OUT

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 16—Although not at their best, the Little Giants of Wabash College believe they can mark the resumption of athletic relations between Wabash and Indiana with a victory in the football game to be played Saturday afternoon at Bloomington.

While the game following this one,
that with DePauw, ancient rivals of Wabash, is all-important in the eyes of Wabash men, nearly the entire student body will go to Bloomington to witness the contest Saturday. Arrangements are being made to charter a special train.

Johnnie Johnson will play full back in place of Gipson who is out with injuries. Johnson's work has been so credible that he has been honored by football critics not only in the state, but received the distinction of getting a conspicuous place in the

CURTAIN-RAISER — MILROY GIRLS Vs. WEBB GIRLS at 7:00 O'CLOCK

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cotton entertained last Sunday with a dinner party, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Gross of Manilla and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton of near Carthage.

About twenty five couples attended the dance given at the K. of P. hall in West Second street Thursday evening. The McGinnis orchestra composed of five pieces furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert West entertained at their home east of the city Sunday with a dinner party. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beber, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Crim, son Eugene and daughter Oletha, Mrs. Charles Grnell, grandson Thomas, Lorene Grnell, and Ed West, Mr. and Mrs. Harry York were guests in the afternoon.

Mrs. S. B. Davidson entertained Thursday afternoon at her home in Falmouth with a quilting party. Her guests were Mrs. Pearl McClain, Mrs. Gertrude Cooney, Mrs. Rena Hittle, Mrs. Lilly Buell and daughter Thelma. At the noon hour a most delicious pitch-in dinner was enjoyed.

The marriage of Mrs. Elsie Lewis, daughter of Lat Berkeley, of this city, to Dr. Thomas B. Gullefer, a well known physician and surgeon of Greensburg, was announced in Thursday's issue of the Greensburg Daily News. The wedding was performed October 15 at Warsaw, Ky., and the announcement was a distinct surprise to their many friends in Greensburg and this city. Mrs. Lewis was formerly employed in a store in Akron, Ohio, until a few weeks ago. They are residing in the Grover building in Greensburg.

The Annual Thank Offering meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the St. Paul's M. E. church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Sparks in North Main street. Mrs. E. B. Poundstone gave a very interesting report on the national convention held at Sioux City, Iowa, and Mrs. R. E. Mansfield gave a talk on the children's work. Splendid music was furnished for the meeting by Miss Helen Jacchne and

Mrs. Wagoner. This meeting was one of the most interesting held by the society during the past year. At the close of the program the hostess served light refreshments.

Miss Estella Ione Roth, and William Rittenmeier, both residents of this city, were quietly married at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening at their newly furnished rooms in the Maury Flats in East Second street, the Rev. E. G. McKibben performing the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. The bride is well known in this city, being a graduate of the local high school, and was employed at the offices of the L. & C. Traction Company. Mr. Rittenmeier is employed as a mechanic by Mullins & Taylor, Inc.

The Priscilla Literary Club was graciously entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harvey Arnold, near Falmouth, with a majority of the members and two guests Mrs. Pearl Hinchman and daughter Ruth, of Rushville, in attendance. The responses to the roll call were suggestions for next year's program. An interesting paper, "The History of Macaroni", was prepared and read by Mrs. Donald Foster and Mrs. Howard Kehl gave a reading entitled "Pumpkin Pie" by John Greenleaf Whittier. During the social hour the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon, November 30, at the home of Mrs. Sherman Hill.

The Rushville chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met November 15, 1923, with Mrs. Martha Grindle. Twenty-eight members and four guests were present. During the business session it was decided instead of having the usual grab bag and Christmas meeting, each member should bring some article for filling a box to be sent to Ellis Island for D. A. R. social service work in the detention ward. More pledges were received for the William Henry Harrison Mansion, $10,000 state endowment fund. Mrs. Charles Offutt gave a group of two beautiful solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. D. H. Dean. Miss Eva Bull gave a review of the book "Seth Way," a continuation of the history of New Harmony when it became an intellectual center. The review was instructive interesting and beautifully given. The hostess and assistants, Mrs. Sallie Case, Mrs. Fanny Ayres, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Mrs. Mae Stiers and Miss Alice Norris served the refreshments.

Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. Otis Miller planned and carried out successfully a birthday surprise party for their mother, Mrs. J. L. Smith of Clarksburg, Tuesday afternoon, in celebration of her 68th birthday. There were about forty present, and a most delightful time was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Smith received many congratulations and gifts from her many friends in memory of the occasion. A program of songs and recitations was given, including duets by Mrs. Owen Hadley and Mrs. Otis Miller; trio by Mrs. Hadley, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Miller; whistling solos by Miss Mabel Emmert. Mrs. Amelia Newbro, who is past eighty, was among the guests present and she recited two poems, "The Little Pilgrim" and "Beautiful Isle". Mrs. Miller recited a poem, "The Merrie Boats of Brishau", one that her father, the late Dr. J. L. Smith, had taught her when she was a child seven years old. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Otis Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Amelia Newbro, Mrs. John Brodie, Mrs. Lula Johnson, Mrs. Omer Hadley, Mrs. Clint Emmert, Mrs. Alex Burns, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Lela Moore, Mrs. M. B. Hite, Mrs. J. W. Hite, Mrs. Willard Farthing, Mrs. Frank Higgins, Mrs. Sarah Harrell, Mrs. James Caudy, Mrs. Melvin Miller and daughter Rosemary, Mrs. Catherine Senior and daughter, Miss Clara, Mrs. D. F. Hite, Mrs. Katie Rosenberry, Mrs. Raymond Miller and Mrs. H. W. Davis.

McCray Admits Signing Names of Farm Managers To Notes

Continued from Page One of considerable amount." Vesey asked for the notes and the amount. McCray listed securities valued at $87,000. These included notes, some bearing the names of managers and others endorsed mortgage notes. "I turned these securities over to Brown in my office on two different occasions," McCray said. "Were all of these securities turned over to the board of agriculture," Vesey asked. "They were to the best of my knowledge," McCray said.

WALTON SEES A CONSPIRACY

Continued from Page One tion put Dr. E. T. Bynum on the stand, that any evidence was developed tending to show a suggestion of corruption or bribery in connection with the transaction. "Doc" Bynum told how he secured Walton the agreement of E. W. Marland, one of the wealthiest of the state's oil, and corporation magnates to buy notes offered by the governor in lieu of a $30,000 balance due to complete payment on the now executive mansion. Marland himself lies too ill to come to the capitol to testify and his man Friday, Frank Lucas, a rather startled individual who was quizzed at some length by Senators anxious to know how the great man conducted his business, testified.

Until Bynum took the stand, the defense had all the better of Monday's arguments. The doctor, who had acted as Walton's executive counselor until appointed banking commissioner, testified not only as to transactions and "understandings" connected with Walton's purchase of his home—but also fed the flames of prosecution with a story of how the governor came constantly to him for "campaign funds" after the inauguration.

The governor sat with his counsel at a table in the center of the senate chamber. His fighting poise was discarded.

Rather pale of face, Walton's curiously heavy-lidded eyes which have just a suggestion of protuberance, looked tired as though the strain of the charges was telling on him. His is a "poker face" though, showing no trace of emotion whatever the statements of witnesses against him.

One reason for the remarkable health of sea-faring people is the fact that their foods are rich in the "Iodine" and indispensable iodine. Iodine is not available in foods grown in inland regions, and the lack of it impairs the health. The iodine has been washed free from inland soil by the rains of ages, it is not available in the foods, and the body suffers because of the lack of it.
Kelp-O-Dine remedies this iodine deficiency in the diet by supplying the pure saline iodine in nature's form and in the right amount. It makes your diet whole by supplying the one essential element your food lacks. By doing so it promotes the general health, prevents and relieves goitre, corrects faulty metabolism and acts as a general tonic. Your druggist has Kelp-O-Dine. One dollar a bottle.

Winding up in a dramatic climax in a courtroom, where society's feathers and fancies are dragged through the shameful fire of scandal until class-hardened hearts are purified and set free from their sham and pretense, "The Power of Life," brought a story of intense emotional character and cold logical value to the screen of the Mystic Theatre today, as an all star Universal attraction.

The story was originally a novel and play by Johann Bojer and, as such created a stir in those hyper-critical circles of the literary and theatrical worlds wherein "What does it mean?" is the guiding motif of judgment. Charles Kenyon of "Kidding" fame made the screen adaptation and George Archambault, one of the sons of France that have been given by the land of art to the American motion picture industry, guided the filming.

What is "The Power of a Lie"? It is the accumulated force of accumulated deceit, the mighty swing of the arm of fraud through the ranks of society. What starts as a dainty little deceit may end in tragedy and ruin, a fact which the story exploits dramatically, clearly. Mabel Juhanne Scott, June Elvidge, David Torrance, Maude George, Earl Metcalf, Phillips Smalley, Winston Miller, Ruby LaFayette and Stanton Heck play the highly emotional roles. Such a cast and the personnel of the producing unit would assure the average prospective patron that the picture is out of the ordinary and decidedly worth seeing.

Week-End at Princess

Douglas MacLean, star of many past Thomas H. Ince productions, has the leading role in "The Sunshine Trail", a zippy western comedy-drama with a new twist which is running at the Princess today and Saturday. The cast of "The Sunshine Trail" also includes Edith Roberts, Little Mariel Frances Dana, Josephine Sedgewick, William Courtwright, Barney Furey, Rex Cherryman and Albert Hart. Thomas H. Ince's latest photoplay was directed by James Horne and was adapted by Bradley King from the story by William Wallace Cook.

The picture tells the amusing story of a doughboy-rowboy who returns from the war, just three years late, to find that his girl is engaged to be married to "the other fellow" in the belief that her soldier sweetheart is dead. The doughboy, who has been given a fine memorial funeral by his fellow townsmen, is greeted as an imposter when he comes home. After a series of adventures which are both thrilling and amusing, he is thrown into jail. There's a surprise ending that carries a big kick.

At Castle Two Days

Alice Calhoun, the charming star in "The Angel of Crooked Street," a dramatic story of the life of a young girl sent to a reformatory on circumstantial evidence, and who, when she comes out, associates with crooks but remains unsinistered and seeks revenge from the woman who wrongs her, will be shown at the Castle Theatre today and Saturday.

The picture is one that will hold the attention and appeal to the average picture goer. It presents Alice Calhoun at her best.

The star while considering the different productions in which she had appeared, and the success made by each, wrote a short article bringing in the titles of all her pictures, which is reproduced below: "The Angel of Crooked Street" is a "Charming Deceiver" called "Princess Jones," who had "The Dream" about how "Peggy Puts It Over" in "The Matrimonial Web" with "The Little Minister" behind "Closed Doors," when the neighbors thought it was "Everybody's Business" and they were "Locked Out" from the "Blue Blood" society called "The Rainbow."

You Can Save Repair Bills

By Keeping Your Car in Condition

The trouble with most people is that they allow small defects to run too long before hunting the repair man. Thus little defects become big ones, and repair bills are proportionately large.

If you will bring your car to us as soon as it begins to "act up" we will materially reduce your cost of maintenance.

Relieve That Eye Strain

Many women have the foolish notion that glasses are a disfigurement.

On the contrary, they are an asset to your appearance if you wear a pair to fit every occasion—the ballroom, the movies, outdoor sports and reading or sewing.

Better to guard your eyes against increasing weakness—for neglect will bring wrinkles and eventually serious discomforts.

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I go so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago I have been entirely well; no constipation or other trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
